AUSTRIANS VOTE AGAINST PEACE TERMS

Vienna Report Says the Vote of the Government Was Unanimous.

WORK ON GERMAN PACT.

Meanwhile Everything Is in Readiness for Advance of Troops, if Necessary.

VIENNA, June 4.—The Austrian Government has decided unanimously that the peace terms presented at St. Germain on Monday are unacceptable, the Neues Abendblatt says.

[An earlier despatch from Vienna said the Austrian Government had decided the terms were acceptable.]

PARIS, June 4.—The Council of Four met this forenoon to complete its reply to the German proposals. Indications are that the answer will be ready in twenty-four hours, as the experts who have been investigating the German economic suggestions have practically completed their work.

Neutrals as well as Allies are making preparations to meet the situation that would be created by refusal of the Germans to sign the treaty. Everything along the Rhine is reported in a hair-trigger readiness. The Allied armies are understood to have taken up strategic positions, ready for a quick advance into Germany, and to be in possession of full "marching orders."

Interest is now centering in the degree to which the peace terms will be modified, since there appears to be a unanimity of opinion that they will be modified. In French circles it is authoritatively stated that they have received the definite impression from the Americans that there will be no fundamental changes in the treaty.

Premier Lloyd George was expected to issue a formal statement to-day, outlining the contemplated changes in the text, as suggested by British, French and American experts.

Norway has declared itself with Switzerland in refusing to join in the blockade of Germany, in the event of a rupture in negotiations.

GERMANS PESSIMISTIC ABOUT TREATY CHANGES

Correspondents at Versailles Believe Answer to Proposals Will Be an Ultimatum.

BERLIN, June 3. (Associated Press).—The correspondents at Versailles of most of the Berlin newspapers write pessimistically to-day under the impression that the Allies will answer the German counter-proposals with an ultimatum which will make it impossible for the Germans to sign the treaty.

The correspondent of the Tageblatt summarizes the situation by declaring that Premier Lloyd George has shown no inclination to yield ground after the meeting of the British Cabinet, while President Wilson is offering the strongest opposition against any concessions. It would be well, he concludes, to count on no modification of importance.

Mrs. M. M. Canda, Mentally Unbalanced, Trapped at Hotel Bossert After Two Hours.

Deputy Chief "Smoky Joe" Martin, Battalion Chiefs Heffernan and Gooderson and two companies of Brooklyn firemen won a two-hour fight at noon to-day to save Mrs. M. M. Canda, wife of a contractor, from an insane effort to kill herself by leaping from the ninth floor of the Hotel Bossert at Hicks and Montague Streets.

Mrs. Canda has been under the observation of physicians at her home, No. 121 Eighth Avenue, Brooklyn. She left home yesterday after her husband had urged her to go to a sanitarium, and at 8 o'clock last night registered at the Bossert. She became hysterical in her room several times during the night.

It was not until this morning that the manager of the hotel got into communication with her husband, who was searching for her in Manhattan. Mrs. Canda had refused to open her door when employees of the hotel called to tell her she was disturbing other guests.

When her husband arrived and threatened to break in the door she screamed that she would jump from

TRAPPED FUGITIVE WAS POLICEMAN'S OLD WAR BUNKIE

Wounded, Gassed and Captured Together—Is Forced to Arrest Him.

They bunked and fought side by side in France, Albert Jensen and Frank Upton, both of the 11th Engineers. They fought together at Chateau-Thierry, were wounded and gassed and captured by the Germans together. And this is what Jensen said to Upton when they met again early this morning in Central Park West:

"Hell, Corporal, I didn't know you were a cop."

"Hell," said Upton, "I didn't know you were a burglar."

Whether Jensen is a burglar or not remains to be learned at his trial, but he was held in $1,000 bail to-day when arraigned before Magistrate Frothingham in the West Side Court on a burglary charge. It was in the courtroom that the strange story came to light. Patrolman Thomas McNamara told it.

"I was in Central Park West near 69th Street," he said, "when I heard shouts of 'Stop thief,' and I saw a man running. It was this prisoner, I caught him. Mrs. Matilda de Rivera, No. 65 Central Park West, said she had seen the man leaving her apartment through a front window, carrying a clock. The clock was smashed on the sidewalk. I rapped with my night stick."

It was the rapping that brought Upton to the scene and caused the re-union of the former soldiers.

In court Jensen showed a scar on his forehead, said he had been shot through the head in France, and remembered nothing of the alleged burglary.

"It's a sad case," said the magistrate, "but all I can do is hold you for the grand jury."

SUFFRAGE DEBATE ON; VOTE IN SENATE NEAR

Wadsworth Leads Attack on Federal Amendment as Test Approaches.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Debate on the woman suffrage resolution was opened in the Senate to-day by Senator Wadsworth, Republican, of New York, who said if the people wanted universal suffrage, the constitutions of the various States were adequate to grant it.

A vote was expected before adjournment.

Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, said Missouri's Legislature had approved equal suffrage, and Senator Reed, his Democratic colleague, retorted that incompetence of men in State Legislatures was notorious.

Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, characterized the resolution as a "Pandora's box of evil," and said a vote for it would be a "vote to turn loose on the South another era of race trouble."

Senator Brandegee, Republican, Connecticut, also opposed the resolution as an invasion of State's Rights and Home Rule, saying the Constitution was being "prostituted" by having local police regulations inserted.

TWO PITTSBURGH EXPLOSIONS TRACED TO ANARCHISTS HERE

POLICE HUNT FOR TWO WOMEN SEEN ON STOOP OF NOTT HOME JUST BEFORE BIG EXPLOSION

Believed to Be Same Pair Searched For After Bomb Blast at Police Headquarters in 1915—Fragment of Metal Another Clue.

Two women who sat on the stoop of Judge Nott's home in East 61st Street for an hour before the explosion of the bomb early Tuesday morning which wrecked the front of the house are being sought by detectives.

It is believed the women may be the same pair who were sought by Inspector Tunney and Sergeant Barnitz of the bomb squad in 1915 as the persons who put a bomb at the door of police headquarters which exploded in the early morning of July 5, 1915. These women, according to Tunney's information, were close friends of Carbone and Arbano, who had just been sentenced to twelve years in prison by Judge Nott for trying to blow up St. Patrick's Cathedral.

The women apparently left the city after the bomb exploded at police headquarters and possibly returned to Europe. Trace of them was lost.

There is information that along with many other anarchists and advocates of violence, the women suspects returned to the city when police vigilance with regards to the I. W. W. and Reds was relaxed.

The information of Mrs. J. E. Muckenstern, who was at a window across the street from Judge Nott's home from 8.30 until fifteen minutes before the explosion, that she had seen two women on the Judge's door step was temporarily discredited yesterday because Dr. McKew, whose home is next door to the Nott house, told the police he thought Mrs. Muckenstern had seen his three daughters on their own steps.

More careful investigation obtained from Mrs. Muckenstern brought the statement that there was no possibility of her having made a mistake.

"I saw the three McKew girls on their own step from about 8 o'clock until 9.15," the statement said. "They were eating ice cream. They stopped the watchman, Bochner, and gave him some ice cream at about 9.30. Then they walked toward Third Avenue, came back and went into the house. It was more than an hour later that I saw two women sitting on the top of the Nott house steps, with their backs against the front door."

HEARD WOMAN'S SCREAMS BEFORE THE EXPLOSION.

"Fifteen minutes before the explosion my husband, after sitting at the window with me, persuaded me to go to bed. I did not go to sleep. It was too warm. I heard a woman scream, and right after that came the explosion."

The detectives believe that the scream was an involuntary shout of horror or warning when the women who had left the bomb on the stoop and were hurrying away saw the faithful old watchman approach it, knowing he would be blown to shreds, as he was.

Detectives are of the opinion that women were selected to place the bomb because their presence on the street or on the door step would not Bomb Maker Named by Seized I. W. W. Leader Also Reported Under Orders From New York Reds—Haywood Alleged to Have Sent Plotter West.

PITTSBURGH, June 4.—Evidence that anarchists responsible for bomb explosions at the homes of Judge W. H. Thompson of the United States District Court, and W. W. Sibray, Chief Inspector of the Bureau of Immigration, Monday night, were operating under orders from Russian Radical Headquarters at No. 133 East 15th Street, New York, was in the hands of the police here to-day.

According to an announcement this morning by Superintendent R. J. Alderdice of the Bureau of Police, John Johnson, President of the local I. W. W. organization, who was arrested yesterday after a fight with detectives in a downtown office building, came to Pittsburgh from New York two weeks ago at the instance of "No. 1001."

William Haywood, President of the National I. W. W., according to Mr. Alderdice, bears the pass number 1001.

Johnson, who, the police say, was the directing genius of the bomb plot in this city, was held in jail to-day with a score of other alleged anarchists, who were arrested yesterday and last night. Bail was refused in each case.

In a partial confession, made to the police late yesterday, Johnson said to have named a Cleveland man as the maker of the bombs exploded here. This man, whose name the police withheld, also is said to have operated under orders of the Radical Headquarters in New York, and is believed to have gone to Chicago after the explosions here. A search for him was being made in that city to-day.

Among the important suspects arrested last night was Mike Bielesta, also known as Zeleste, said by the police to be secretary of the Russian Soviet Organization in Pittsburgh, and a delegate from the Petrograd Council of Workmen and Peasants, sent to this country to spread Bolshevik propaganda.

A large quantity of I. W. W. and anarchistic literature was found on the suspects, which the police turned over to agents of the Department of Justice to aid in running down perpetrators of the nation-wide bomb plot.

Johnson, according to the police, told the name of the bomb maker after he had been confronted by evidence furnished by Miss Florence Becker, who gave the police a description of two men who, she says, placed a package on the porch of a house across from Inspector Sibray's home shortly before the explosion occurred.

Miss Becker described Johnson, even to his manner of dress, as one of the men, according to the police, who had been in the United States twelve years, but never was naturalized.

Federal agents and city detectives say all the suspects under arrest are anarchists and members of the I. W. W. Those arrested are John Makowski, Michael Romanik, Adam Balaluk, Stephen Barnatowicz, Martin Stefankoff, Frank Braida, Louis Hachul, J. M. Walsh, John Blum, Rudolph Blum, Michael Belesla, David Hornin, all of Pittsburgh; John Johnson, Philadelphia, Pa.; and Demeter B. Dobridreff, Granite City, Ill.

John A. Vorst, fifty-two, of Brooklyn, a chemist, who was arrested in a downtown hotel, was committed to jail for a further investigation. He was mixing chemicals in his room when arrested by city detectives, they declared.

Mayor Hancock to-day declared war on Bolshevism and anarchy.

WILSON GETS A PROMISE THAT LLOYD GEORGE WILL UNDERTAKE IRISH REFORMS

London Daily News Says Movement Will Begin Immediately—Borah Resolution Amended and Reported to Senate.

LONDON, June 4. THE Daily News said to-day it had learned on the most reliable authority that President Wilson had obtained a definite understanding from Premier Lloyd George that "a wide measure of reform will be undertaken in Ireland immediately."

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee to-day favorably reported Senator Borah's resolution urging the peace conference to give a hearing to Irish delegates.

The committee amended the resolution by eliminating a reference to the "Irish republic" on the ground that might constitute a recognition of the republican government.
